

ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE OF HAWAII 2012 GRANT FOR TEACHERS OF FRENCH

The Alliance Française of Hawaii invites applications from current teachers of French interested in furthering their knowledge of the French language and Francophone culture.

Applicants must plan either to enroll in an accredited community college or university program or to attend professional workshops or conferences during the 2012 calendar year.

Teachers must be currently teaching a French language and/or culture course and plan to use the scholarship to further their French language and culture studies to better their work in their classrooms. Eligible candidates will have demonstrated professional excellence and service to their French teaching profession and students.

The Scholarship Committee of the Alliance Française of Hawaii will select recipients. Scholarship recipients will be expected to present a brief report detailing how the scholarship funds were used and recipients may also be asked to attend one of the organization's functions to share with members how their funded studies help to promote the mission of the Alliance Française of Hawaii. The deadline for applications is February 1, 2012. The value and number of scholarships will be determined by the Scholarship Committee of the Alliance Française of Hawaii after reviewing all applications.
